

Data Documentation

Webpage 6

Public Descriptions of SDOH 2.0 Index Metrics

Metric	Description	Technical Inputs
Resource Access (Sub-Domain) (formerly Accessibility)	Describes a county's access to key social and public services relative to the 'average American' county.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Food Access at 20 miles • Libraries and Religious Institutes per 10,000 residents • Percent > 65 who work
Economic Security (Sub-Domain) (formerly Economic)	Describes the economic security of a county, including labor force participation, income above the poverty level, and utilization of public insurance, relative to the 'average American' county.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Unemployment rate (20-64) • Labor force participation • Income above poverty • Public Insurance Usage
Healthcare Access (Sub-Domain) (formerly Health Care)	Describes the health treatment options available in a geographic area and outcomes relative to the 'average American' county.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number of active MDs • OBGYN specialists • Pediatric specialists
Housing and Transportation (Sub-Domain) (formerly Thriving)	Describes the value of homes, both in terms of dollar value and in relationship to the income of the household, and the access to public transportation resources relative to the 'average American' county.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Home value to income ratio 3.0-3.9 • Homes $500k and up • Use of public transportation
Food Access (Sub-Domain) (formerly Vulnerable Populations)	Describes the food access for several groups considered to be vulnerable populations in a county compared to the 'average American' county.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children, Black/African American, and Senior food access at 1 mile
Social Determinants of Health 2.0	Provides a comprehensive description of a community's social and physical health based on the following sub-domains: accessibility, economic, health care, housing and transportation, food access, and vulnerable populations.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Composite of the 5 Sub-Domain values listed above

